

INTEGRATIVE ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Program Description

This Integrative Environmental Studies minor explores the various ways that humans relate to and affect nature and the environment. Through an interdisciplinary approach, students will develop essential skills in critical analysis, communication and knowledge-gathering with a focus on the environment.

Requirements

Code	Title	Hours
ENGL 237	Literature and the Environment	3
NRES 304	The Human Environment	3
NSCI 103	Environmental Science	3
NSCI 104	Environmental Science Lab	1
PHIL 215	Ethical Theory and Practice	3
POLI 342	Internatl Environmental Policy	3
Select one course from each group:
Group 1:		3
ECON 307	Environmental Economics
ENGL 221	Intro to Creative Writing
ENGL 235	Survey of Native Literature
ENGL 306	Technical Writing
EVRN 311	Environmental Law
SOCY 227	Population and Ecology
Group 2:		3-4
BIOL 132	General Biology: Organisms
BIOL 307	US Food System
EVRN 317	Environmental Health Apps
GEOG 108	Phy Geog: Meteorology/Climatol
NRES 103	Fund of Natural Resources
NRES 286	Principles of Watersheds
NSCI 102	Gr Lakes Region: Geology & Res
NSCI 116	Introduction to Oceanography
Total Hours		22-23