

PHILOSOPHY MINOR

Program Description

Students will complement their major program of study and refine their analytical and critical thinking skills while engaging with pressing individual, intellectual, and cultural issues. Students will acquire a firm grounding in the history of thought. Philosophical study aims to enrich one's life and better prepare students for a variety of career options and future post-baccalaureate study.

Requirements

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses
PHIL 205	Logic	3
PHIL 215	Ethical Theory and Practice	3
PHIL 302	Ancient Western Philosophy	3
PHIL 305	Modern Contemporary Philosophy	3
Elective Courses
Select 8-9 credits from the following:		8-9
PHIL 100	Special Topics (if offered)
PHIL 200	Special Topics (if offered)
PHIL 204	Introduction to Philosophy
PHIL 210	Existentialism
PHIL 220	Biomedical Ethics
PHIL 250	Philosophy of Religion
PHIL 300	Special Topics (if offered)
PHIL 400	Special Topics (if offered)
HUMN 261	World Literature I
HUMN 262	World Literature II
Total Hours		20-21