

SOCIAL WORK MINOR

Program Description

The minor in social work provides students with a basic understanding of social welfare and the social work profession, and facilitates beginning preparation for careers and/or graduate studies in human service professions. Through both courses and required internship experiences, students will be exposed to a wide variety of policies, programs, and services designed to improve quality of life for the underserved, people in need of health and human services, and people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty.
